A site meeting was held on 24 January 2019. The contractor indicated that the completion date can be indicated as 31 May 2019. The architects still pointed out problem areas that need attention. Payment certificate 9 was paid in January and payment certificate 10 was submitted to supply chain on 30 January 2019. Mr David Lebelo from the national department of Arts and Culture visited the site on 29 January 2019 and will be forwarding concerns to Ms Ethney Waters. (January 2019) [D277] Director: Community Services: A site meeting was held on 21 February 2019. Mr David Lebelo requested penalties to be imposed on the contractor due to non compliance. The client, Breede Valley Municipality, in consultation with Mr Pieter Hugo (Provincial Library Service), decided to give the contractor one more opportunity to rectify the situation. The project management team requested extension of payment due to the prolonged construction period. The contractor was requested to apply for further extension of the project and it was indicated that the project must be completed by the end of May 2019. (The architects indicated quite a few technical problem areas that need to be attended to urgently by the contractor) (February 2019) [D277] Director: Community Services: Macho Construction appointed a new project manager on site - Mr Enrique Vina. Mr Vina will manage the project until completion. A site meeting was held on 14 March 2019 and technical problems were afterwards highlighted and provided by Mr Willem Maas (Architect). The contractor is currently giving attention to problem areas. Mr Carel Coetzer visited the site on 20 March 2019 and issued a request for a further payment to Macho Construction. The new project manager provided a request for extension until 27 May 2019 and submitted a new construction program. (March 2019)
