

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release

20 April 2020

UPDATE: COVID19 & LOCKDOWN

Learner's licence, driving licence, motor vehicle licence disc, PDP etc. during and after lockdown period

During the lockdown, the validity period for learner's licence, driving licence, motor vehicle licence disc, temporary permit, professional driving permit and road worthy certificates shall be deemed to be valid and shall be extended for a further grace period of 30 days from the date of expiry of a lockdown period, unless determined otherwise by the Minister.

Validity of tourist transport services: licences and accreditation certificates during and after lockdown period

The validity period for all transport operating licences and accreditation certificates for tourist transport services that are due to expire during the lockdown, shall be deemed to be valid and shall be extended for a further grace period of 90 days from the date of expiry of a lockdown period, unless determined otherwise by the Minister.

Motor trade number licence during and after lockdown period

The validity period for the renewal of a motor trade number licence during the lockdown, shall be deemed to be valid and shall be extended for a further grace period of 6 months from the date of the expiry of the lockdown, unless determined otherwise by the Minister. Driving licence testing centres and vehicle testing stations will remain closed during lockdown period.

Provision, selling and transportation of greywater not an essential service

The provision, selling and transportation of greywater will not be permitted as it is not an essential service. People found selling and transporting grey water are in transgression of the lockdown regulations and will therefore be prosecuted.

Permits for essential services

The Fire, Rescue and Disaster Management Services Centre, the SAPS, Magistrates' Office are not issuing movement permits for essential services. The only permits that are being issued by the SAPS and/or the Magistrates' office in terms of the regulations are for the attendance of funeral outside the district.

Ends.

Media Queries

Hannelie Botha
Breede Valley Municipality
E-mail: hbotha@bvm.gov.za

